2. Introduction

Stadsig Development Company is the developer of Stadsig Estate in Wellington area in Western Cape. The majestic Hawequa Mountains tower above, silent sentinels that hold your gaze and allow you to immerse yourself in the tranquility of Stadsig's Cape Vernacular homes. Appreciate the stillness of this mountainous corner of the Cape Winelands, in the knowledge that Wellington town centre is just minutes from your stoep

3. Guide in terms of Section 10 of The Act

- 3.1 The ACT grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If [YR4.1] a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

8. Requesting Procedures

A person who wishes to obtain access to a record of the Company must submit a request in the prescribed form, using the contact details of the Information Officer set out in this manual. The request must be made in writing and must provide sufficient detail to enable the Company to identify the record requested and the right that the requester seeks to exercise or protect, where applicable.

The requester must provide:

- Full name and contact details.
- Proof of authority if the request is made by a representative.
- A clear description of the record requested.
- The form of access required.
- A postal or email address in South Africa for correspondence.
- An explanation of the right to be exercised or protected, where the request is made in terms of PAIA.

Once the request is received, the Information Officer will:

- Record and acknowledge the request.
- Check whether the request is sufficiently detailed and complies with PAIA.
- Notify the requester of any request fee, access fee, or deposit that may apply.
- Consider the request in accordance with PAIA and any applicable grounds for refusal.
- Provide a written decision within the statutory period, or notify the requester of any lawful extension.

If access is granted, the record will be provided in the form requested, where reasonably possible, after the applicable fees have been paid. If access is refused, the Company will provide written reasons for the refusal and the requester's available remedies.

If the request is unclear, incomplete, or does not contain enough information to identify the record, the Information Officer may ask the requester to clarify or supplement the request before it is processed further.

Requests should be sent to the Information Officer at the Company's postal address, physical address, email address, or fax number, as set out in the Contact Particulars section of this manual.

9. Prescribed Fees

- 11.1. A requestor is required to pay the prescribed fees before a request will be processed;
- 11.2. If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed hours (six), a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted);
- 11.4. A requestor may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit;
- 11.5. Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.
- 11.6. The fee structure is available on the website of the Information Regulator at:
| <https://infoeregulator.org.za/paia-fees-structure-2/>

10. Protection of Personal Information Processed

Stadsig Development Company Pty Ltd is committed to protecting the privacy of personal information of our data subjects. The information you share with us as a data subject allows us to provide you with the best experience with our products and services, or as a stakeholder. Stadsig Development Company Pty Ltd has dedicated policies and procedures in place to protect all personal information collected and processed by us. Please read below for more information on how we collect, process, use and disclose personal information.

We process personal information for various reasons, including but not limited to the following:

- Financial and tax purposes;
- Health and safety purposes;
- Legal or contractual purposes;
- Marketing purposes
- To maintain customer records;

10.1 Data subject categories and personal information processed

Categories of Data Subjects	Personal Information that may be processed
Customers	Gender, ID number, E-mail address, Correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature, or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence
Suppliers	E-mail address, Correspondence sent by the person that is implicitly or explicitly of a private or confidential nature, or further correspondence that would reveal the contents of the original correspondence

10.2 Recipients with whom personal information is shared

- Contractors, vendors or suppliers
- Tax authorities;

10.3 Security measures implemented to protect personal information

We have identified our security risks over the personal information we process in line with the Protection of Personal Information Act, and we have implemented various security measures to ensure reasonable protection against the risk of loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure, alteration and destruction of the personal information.

We also take steps to ensure that operators that process personal information on behalf of company name apply adequate safeguards as outlined above.

10.4 Trans-border flows of personal information

We may transfer to, and store personal information we collect about you, in countries other than South Africa, if the relevant business transactions or situation requires trans-border processing. These countries may not have the same data protection laws as South Africa, and in this instance we will only transfer the information if we have consent from you, or it is necessary for the performance or conclusion of a contract between us.

10.5 Personal information received from third parties

When we receive personal information from a third party on behalf of a data subject, we require confirmation that they have written consent from the data subject that they are aware of the contents of this PAIA manual and the Privacy Policy, and do not have any objection to our processing their information in accordance with this policy.

Where information on third parties is provided by a data subject, or a third party provides information on a data subject, that information may be taken into account with other personal information.

10.6 Data Breaches

Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the personal information of a data subject has been accessed or acquired by any unauthorised person, Stadsig Development Company Pty Ltd shall notify:

- a) the Regulator; and
- b) the data subject, unless the identity of such data subject cannot be established.

The notification will be made as soon as reasonably possible after the discovery of the compromise, taking into account the legitimate needs of law enforcement or any measures reasonably necessary to determine the scope of the compromise and to restore the integrity of the responsible party's information system.
